Official Academic Record Information

www.byui.edu/student-records

1. TRANSCRIPTS

Official BYU-Idaho Transcripts must bear the signature of the University Registrar and the printed seal of BYU-Idaho.

2. UNIVERSITY HISTORY

Effective August 10, 2001, Brigham Young University-Idaho replaced the prior name of Ricks College. Students attending prior to August 10, 2001, attended and graduated from Ricks College.

3. ACCREDITATION

BYU-Idaho is regionally accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). This accreditation covers all courses, certificates, Associate, and Baccalaureate degrees.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS

This transcript must not be released to a third party without written authorization of the student, in accordance with federal law.

5. ACADEMIC CALENDAR

BYU-Idaho operates on a semester system. Beginning in 2007, BYU-Idaho offers three full semesters and a summer session.

Those semesters are as follows:

Fall Semester (September-December)

Winter Semester (January-April)

Spring Semester (April-July)

Summer Session (July-August)

6. UPPER DIVISION CREDIT

300- or 400-level courses (beginning with the 2001-2002 academic year).

7. SATISFACTORY PROGRESS

A student is considered to be making satisfactory progress if the student maintains a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher.

8. GRADUATION

All degree programs require a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0. All certificates require a minimum program GPA of 2.0. Historically, students may have also earned a One-Year or Two-Year Certificate at Ricks College.

9. ACADEMIC RENEWAL

Students may petition for forgiveness of grades earned at BYU-Idaho. If granted, these grades and credits are no longer calculated in the cumulative GPA. Students are advised that schools to which they are transferring may not honor this condition.

10. TRANSFER CREDIT

BYU-Idaho accepts transfer credit to satisfy degree requirements. As of Winter Semester 2010 transfer credit is included to satisfy degree requirements but does not factor into a student's GPA.

11. COURSES RETAKEN

Courses designated as retaken do not calculate into the earned, passed, or quality cumulative credits. Courses designated as retaken (over limit) do not calculate into the earned credits.

12. GRADING AND SCALE

*13. GRADE DEFINITIONS

W: Student withdrew; not calculated in GPA

I: Student allowed additional time to complete course; not calculated in GPA or credit totals until final grade is awarded.

P: Pass grades available for limited number of courses designated in the University catalog; not calculated in GPA

T: Temporary grade given for courses that extend beyond the semester academic deadlines (internships); not calculated in GPA

14. END OF TRANSCRIPT STATISTICS

- Attempt*: The total number of credits in which a student has registered in a semester/session or cumulative basis.
- Earn*: The total number of credits earned toward graduation in a semester/session or cumulative basis.
- Pass*: The total number of credits passed toward graduation that do not factor into the semester/session or cumulative GPA.
- Quality*: The total number of credits earned toward graduation that factor into the semester/session and cumulative GPA.
- Points*: The total number of grade points earned in a semester/session or cumulative basis.

15. COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Course descriptions for each course a student has completed dating back to 1970 can be obtained online at www.byui.edu/student-records. Contact the Student Records and Registration Office at transfer@byui.edu for course descriptions for courses completed prior to 1970.
